Phyllis Bonville would like volunteers to help her at the front table greeting guests. Elinor Jones will be in charge of the refreshment table at the front of the auditorium. She would like volunteers to bring cookies for refreshments. If you can, also bring the recipe. Suzanne will print copies and make them available to members. Anita offered to make a poster to place outside. Pat Hatfield distributed a photograph of the door prize and 10 tickets to each member to sell at $1.00 each. Suzanne will take the quilt and tickets to the Yreka Quilt Show and Dora will try to go to the Roseburg show.

NEW BUSINESS: Joyce reported on the recent progress of Moonlighters. It should be completed after the next meeting to be held on Saturday, April 8, 1989, at the Hugo Ladies Club. Bring a sack lunch and basic sewing supplies.

The election of officers was held. Pat Hatfield moved to cast a unanimous vote. Motion carried. Elinor Jones was elected Vice-President and Elaine Turcke, Secretary.

Dorothy Herberg presented a fascinating program. We all benefited from seeing her early contest entry in the Orange County Fair to her current awardwinning "Memories of Childhood". She pointed out the comments of judges can be mystifying at times, but, "Go for it and have fun with it".

Pat displayed a beautiful wall hanging she has made for a fund-raising effort of the Friends of the Rogue Valley Symphony, and a wonderful quilt the Hugo group has done for the Early Days Gas Engine and Tractor Association/

The Challenge quilts that were completed were shown to the delight of all. They represent a diverse collection of color and form. They will surely be enjoyed by all guests at our upcoming quilt show.

Vicki Johnson of Empty Spools is offering a workshop on fabric painting, piecing and machine quilting.

Suzanne reported on her recent trip to Majorca, Spain/ The fabric was much more expensive than anticipated. Fabric 35" wide was $15-20 a meter and 60" was $30-60 a meter. The samesmen were all men.

The silent auction was postponed.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Vicki Newhouse
