

Mountain Stars Quilters Guild

General Meeting- Dec. 2, 1989

Hugo Ladies Club

The meeting was opened by president, Dora Scheidecker. The reading of the minutes was dispensed with. There was no treasurers report due to illness.

Visitors were introduced among whom was Terry Grant, owner of Scrap Peddlers, a new quilt shop in Ashland.

Members were informed of a show in the planning stages to be held at the Grants Pass Art Museum in late August, and of the Mountain Stars Quilt Show to be held in Jacksonville on May 12. Information which appeared in the last newsletter was discussed.

The next Guild meeting will be at the Masonic Hall in Jacksonville in March.

The program consisted of show and tell by all present and highlighted many holiday projects aswell as other items. Several members wore sweatshirts recently made at a workshop. Everyone enjoyed the meeting and came away with new ideas and appreciation for our members' work.

Respectfully submitted,
Elaine Turcke
Elaine Turcke, Secretary