

Mountain Stars Quilters Guild
General Meeting
Senior Center - Ashland OR December 7, 1991

The December meeting, a Christmas gathering, was called to order by Rachel Razzolini. The September minutes were approved. Judy Kaplan, treasurer, reported a balance on hand of $2,563.07. Guests were introduced. Rachel presented Dora Scheidecker a bouquet of flowers; thanking Dora for her contribution to promoting quilting and for her work in Mt. Stars Guild.

OLD BUSINESS: Pat Hatfield asked for volunteers to quilt on the patriotic wall hanging and 2 panels. The raffle quilt is in the process of cutting and piecing. A January 1992 workday is being planned.

Vicki explained content and rationale of the "Ticket Sales Committee Report." Verda Sanders made a motion to accept the report leaving individual freedom within small groups. This was seconded by Arlene Mills; motion carried. Vicki Newhouse brought a number of miniature quilts to share ideas for the silent auction for the May 1992 Quilt Show. Size 24" or smaller....specific details later.

Anita reported the May 1992 Quilt Show will be in Jacksonville ballroom; Elaine Turcke to be chairman; details to follow in March.

Joyce Coulter displayed some of Margaret Hunsaker's Celtic quilts. The Celtic workshop is scheduled for January 22, 1992 at Hugo Ladies Club.

Feathered star blocks were on display, following Louise Kindig's workshop in Oct.

NEW BUSINESS: Marian Leman from Creative Hands, Grants Pass, is sponsoring Roberta Horton's Seminar; May 11, 12, 13, 1992. Call Creative Hands at 479-6665 for details. Also announced is Mary Pender's trunk show in February.

President Rachel needs a nominating committee for election of a President and Treasurer.....to report in March....No volunteers....

Emily Karpus presented a program of ideas on the use of ruffles, prairie points, cording and lace, to add interest and beauty to decorative pillows.

Collected were ^{children's} Christmas gifts. Cookies and coffee was served.

Next meeting to be held In Jacksonville on March 14, 1992

LaVonne Braaten

LaVonne Braaten,
Secretary