

Mountain Stars Guild - General Meeting
December 12, 1992, Mark Antony, Ashland, Oregon

The December Christmas luncheon was arranged by Terry Grant at Mark Antony Hotel. Minutes were approved. Treasurer reports a balance on hand of $3,023.62.

PRESIDENT, Elaine, thanked Terry Grant, owner of Scrap Peddlers, for her contribution to Mt. Stars; wishing her well upon her move to Portland. Also, the group thanked Terry for making luncheon arrangements.

NEWS items were read by Vicki Newhouse. Patchwork Place is sponsoring a special event in July. Registration form available.

OLD BUSINESS

1. NOMINATING COMMITTEE, Pat Hatfield, Jay Ritter, Joyce Coulter, Suzanne Enos and Elaine Turcke met after our luncheon. They ~~were~~ <sup>are</sup> to report in March.
2. Mt. Stars Quilt Show, '93, is scheduled for May 8 at Grants Pass High School, 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM. Day may include vendors, 2 fashion shows. Donations at the door. Chairmen are Anita Ledwidge and Elinor Jones.
3. Community Outreach: The board recommended to drop the KSYS sponsorship of a quilt show and those interested in Grants Pass, Family Friends, may pursue projects on their own.
The board recommended helping the Francis Cheney Place - families in treatment at Rogue Medical Center. Fran Wing, decorator, wants 12 14 x 16 blocks for the doors. Fran will pick the colors; we will choose the designs. Fran will give details at the March meeting.
4. Pat Hatfield shared the donations quilt. Rogue River friends are scheduled to continue the quilting.

NEW BUSINESS

New members and guests were introduced.

Sally Schneider, author of "Painless Borders", will be available October 1993, for a 1 or 2 day workshop. A survey was taken to find out: Membership interest in the Schneider workshop; can person attend on week days or a Saturday; location of workshop and what needle & size each person uses for quilting projects.

A Christmas "Make Something for Christmas", was enjoyed by all.

Elaine narrated a Fairfield Fashion Style Show. 1990-91. (slides)

The Pinetree blocks (80+), were won by Terry Grant and . Anita Ledwidge and Elinor Jones are new block chairman.

The 1993 Mt. Star Challenge is any star pattern made into a wall quilt; no smaller than 24" x 24" or larger than 40" x 40". Maker makes own fabric and color choices.

THE next board meeting meeting is at Grants Pass, February 13th, at the Black Forest. March meeting will be held at Jacksonville. Medford members will assist with refreshments.
