

Mountain Star Quilters Guild

March 13, 1993 Jacksonville, Oregon

PRESIDENT Elaine Turcke greeted 64 members, new members and guests; filling the Masonic Lodge room. Minutes were approved. Treasurer Vicki Newhouse reported a balance on hand of $2,992.16.

OLD BUSINESS

JOYCE COULTER and Mary Le Claire have set dates for Sally Schneider, author of "Painless Border". One is October 15th, in Grants Pass and repeated in Medford October 16th.

SUCANNE ENOS announced that Tina Seres of Tiera will do a stained glass block in a morning workshop preceding our June 12th meeting. There will be more detail on a materials list later.

MT STAR Quilt Show is set for May 8th, 10:00 - 4:00 at Grants Pass High School. Anita has flyers; has sign up sheets for help and entry blanks for showing wall, or full size quilts. Make arrangements for quilt transportation through Elaine. There will be demonstrations, vendors and 2 fashion shows. For more information needed: contact Anita or Elinor Jones.

PAT HATFIELD had a raffle quilt at our meeting. She passed out envelopes with tickets and a picture, asking members to help on this effort. Jay Ritter will have the quilt in Medford area to promote sale of tickets until April 1st.

NEW BUSINESS

FRAN WING brought samples of wallpaper paint colors, to be used in the 12 bed rooms at the Francis Cheney Place. Mt. Star Quilters inspired her decorating plans to include 12 15" traditional blocks; (12" block with 1½" border). These will be encased in plastic and placed by each bedroom door. Colors are peach, green, blue and lavender. Elaine will give more information to those who have signed up to do the project.

JAY RITTER introduced Vickie Kiser+Sharon Piper from Calico Junction, who shared samples of a number of creative jackets made at classes in their shop. They invited members to stop by the store. New Calico Junction owners are Bobbi Jones and Vicki Kiser.

DORALEA KUCICH from Azalea <sup>Guild</sup> in Brookings, brought pictures of the 10th anniversary quilt made by Azalea Quilters. They had tickets for the applique quilt. Also, they invited wall and full size quilts to be photographed and placed in the 1993 show. June Hopkins and Doralea will take quilts from the Mt. Star show, or contact LaVonne for transportation to and from Brookings.

CHALLENGE:

Elaine showed the group her "Star Challenge" wall quilt. She urged all members to keep working on a wall hanging for the '93 show. Size 24 x 24 to 40 x 40; any color or star pattern.

GUESTS

Guests and new members were introduced. <sup>Helen Erickson</sup> Ann Stutts won the "Block of the Season"; an applique tulip.

THERE was a colorful, wonderful show and tell from quilt picture to large full quilts and much more in between.

BERNICE Costa was the "mystery" winner of the  $\frac{1}{2}$  the Christmas tree blocks. (Terry Grant won also).

COFFEE, tea and cookies were served by the Jacksonville Quilters. Thanks to the group!!

Respectfully,

LaVonne Braaten

LaVonne Braaten
Secretary