

MOUNTAIN STARS QUILTERS GUILD

June 11, 1993 - Hugo Ladies Club

PRESIDENT Elaine Turcke called the meeting to order. Minutes of the March 1993 meeting were approved as printed in the June Newsletter.

TREASURER Vicki Newhouse reported a balance on hand of $4,566.47.

INSTALLATION of new officers, Monika Jones, Vice-president and Margaret Carter, Secretary, was done by Naomi Crookston after President Elaine thanked Jay Ritter and LaVonne Braaten for serving for their past terms.

RIBBONS were presented to winners of the Mountain Stars Quilters Guild Quilt Show by Anita Ledwidge, Co-Chair of the Show held at the Grants Pass Gym on May 8. (Winners were listed in the June 1993 Newsletter). Anita also reported on the "Good Press" the Guild is getting from local newspapers. Next years quilt show is scheduled to be held in the Medford area.

PAINLESS BORDERS class set for October 15, in Grants Pass, October 16, in Medford. See Joyce Coulter for all details.

FEATHERED STAR II class by Louise Kindig was tentatively set for September. Sign-up sheets were passed for both classes.

NEW BUSINESS - 17 ladies attended Terry Grant's CrazyHeart Class held from 9 am to Noon before the regular meeting. It was great to have her back even if only for a day. Seventeen Crazy Hearts should be available for viewing in September!

MEMBERS who signed up to make a block for the FRANCIS CHENEY project chose a pattern and wallpaper and paint samples were distributed to them. Deadline for the finished block is the September meeting. The decorator wants the name of the block, the quilters name and Mountain Stars Quilters Guild written in the border. Consensus was one person should ink that information on all the blocks.

PRE-MEETING WORKSHOP for September is scheduled from 9 AM to Noon with Carolyn Pimental who will present 5 Techniques for  $\frac{1}{2}$  square triangles. Sign-up information by mail will appear in the next newsletter.

ILLINOIS VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY sent a letter requesting the Guild provide them a quilt to facilitate their fundraising efforts by July 17. Mountain Stars will reply with regret we have no resources at this time to be able to accomplish this request.

CAVE JUNCTION quilter, Barbara Brack, asked the membership for any historical quilt, especially Oregon Trail quilts if possible to be shown in Cave Junction August 14 & 15th in conjunction with the Blackberry Festival.

BLOCK OF SEASON winners were Elinor Jones and Susanne Enos. 72 Pinwheel blocks were made for the drawing.

ROOSTER CROW - Naomi Crookston circulated a sign-up sheet for quilts to be shown at the Rooster Crow in Rogue River on June 26.

QUILT SHOW - Margaret Hunsaker announced a Quilt Show at her Church on September 18, and asked for entries.

QUILTING CLASSES - Rowena Kerber announced she is teaching classes at the Small Business Development Center, 290 N.E. "C" Street. You may call Rowena for details. She comes highly recommended!

PROGRAM - Elaine Turcke reported on her trip to Quilt City USA, Paducah, Kentucky. Elaine shared information and brochures from the new Quilter's Museum and thoughts from the two day class she took on the appraisal and certification of quilts.

SHOW AND TELL had many marvelous creations from the membership. Immediately following adjournment refreshments were served by the Hugo Ladies Club.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Carter
