

MOUNTAIN STARS QUILTER'S GUILD

MARCH 11, 1995

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON

President Rowena Kerber called the meeting to order at 1 PM in the Masonic Lodge Meeting Room. Guests and new members were introduced. Minutes of the December 1994 meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter. Treasurer Marilyn Hinton reported a balance on hand of $4,596.94.

Nominating Committee Chair Elaine Turcke reported the nominees for the following offices: Vice-President, Ann Underwood; Secretary, Delores Vietti. There were no nominations from the floor and it was moved and seconded to accept the nominations. Other committee members were Geri Bryant, Gerry Lewis, and Sharon Little.

Sharon Little passed the sign-up sheet for the next charm square exchange. Deadline for inclusion in the exchange is May 5. Sharon also presented the Siskiyou Country Quilter's Guild Challenge.

Elaine Turcke announced the Blazing Stars class is full with 25 people signed up. The Mystery Quilt Retreat is scheduled for October 13 & 14 at Paradise Ranch, Merlin. Class size is limited to 28 persons. Linda Ballard of Palo Cedro, CA, is the teacher. If the retreat proves to be a huge success we will look for a larger facility for future retreats.

Millie Zottola was the winner of the Double "T" Block of the Season.

President Kerber thanked Mildred Stephens and the Jacksonville Museum Quilters for arranging the meeting place and refreshments. Rowena then extended a special recognition to Sharon Little and Ellyn Rosas on their excellent newsletter.

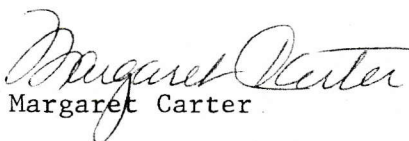

Anita Ledwidge reported on final preparations for the quilt show to be held May 20 and 21, in Grants Pass. The raffle quilt and tickets are being placed with different clubs and shops ending with Rosebud in Medford until show time.

Gerry Lewis announced an Estate Sale of quilter and sewing supplies at 440 Chestnut Street, Ashland, Monday, March 20 at 9 AM to 4 PM.

After Show & Tell Monika Jones introduced Judy Byrd and Charlie Weckerle from The Country Lady Quilt Shop of Roseburg. They showed examples of quilts and shared information on their shop and the Roseburg quilt show held the last week-end of April. This year the show features children's quilts.

Meeting adjourned at 2:20 PM with refreshments and shopping from the many books, notions and fabrics brought by The Country Lady.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Carter
