

MOUNTAIN STARS QUILTERS GUILD NEWSLETTER
MINUTES OF DECEMBER 1996 MEETING

The Christmas luncheon meeting held at J J North's Grand Buffet was called to order by Co-President Sherri Abbott at 12 Noon. Visitors and new members were recognized and festivities started with one of several drawings held throughout the meeting. The business portion of the day was held after lunch with the September 1996 minutes being approved as printed in the newsletter. Treasurer Gloria Leigh reports an account balance of $5,982.45, as of December 14, 1996.

Chair of the Quilt Show, Lyla Reed, asked for volunteers and demonstrators for the April 1997 Mountain Stars Quilt Show to be held April 12 - 13 at Hoover School. If you have items for sale and if you can help at the show. LaVonne Braaten has the tickets for the Opportunity Quilt. Susanne Enos will also have tickets available while the quilt is on display throughout the holidays at Rosebud Quilts & Cottons.

Ellyn Rosas was thanked for her major effort in organizing and seeing to the completion of the Opportunity Quilt. It was also announced Ellyn will be the new program chair taking over for retiring Elaine Turcke.

Naomi Crookston was the lucky winner of the Block of the Season "Oh, Christmas Tree". Marian Leman showed the Spring Block "Martha Washington Star" to be done in blues and muslin. If you have questions regarding the block please call Marian at 476-5851.

Anita Ledwidge has accepted the post of Guild Historian.

Sharon Little presented the program on the 1996 Seattle APNQ quilt show. The 68 ladies in attendance can attest to the fact they indeed have a premier show from seeing the slide presentation. Membership for two years in the APNQ is $25.00. They host a quilt show every two years with members being made up of persons from Alaska, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, British Columbia and the Yukon Territory only. Their purpose is to promote high quality quilting in the Pacific Northwest.

Show and Tell, led by LaVonne Braaten, had a little bit of everything, full-size and mini-quilts, vests, butchers aprons and hatboxes to highlight a few.

Meeting adjourned at 2:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted

Margaret Carter

Temporary ???? Secretary????

*Hi! will give you your Steno book @ next board meeting!! Hope you are better & high & dry! Am really out of practice w/ the minute taking!!
Margaret*